THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION, JUNE 30, 1674

WORTHY, DEAR, FAITHFUL

Whereas it has graciously pleased the only good and kind God again to favor the State, our fatherland, in general and this province in particular, not only with peaceful times and renewal of a previous union and alliance with the crown of England, but that which is to be esteemed above everything else, the continuance of the pure religion; Therefore the Hon. Lord Governor General and Councillors of New Netherland have deemed it necessary by these presents to order the observance of a general day of thanksgiving which (with the cessation of the ordinary day of fasting and prayer) shall be generally observed within this province in the forenoon, on the second Wednesday of the next ensuing month of July, being the 11th day of the said month; And that everything may be the better and more properly practiced and observed at the religious services on the said day of thanksgiving it is by these presents forbidden to transact any business or carry on trade, or play any games or the like exercises, and all innkeepers are forbidden from selling drinks upon the penalty prior to this enacted for the same. And all magistrates and officers in the province to whom this present shall be sent are required and ordered that this missive shall be made known to their communities by publication, and to proceed against those contravening as is meet. Trusting in this, we remain,

Worthy, dear, faithful,

Your affectionate friends the Governor General and Councillors of New Netherland

MELYN PAPERS

1640-1699

[Deed for Staten Island, July 1640]

We Willem Kieft, Director General and Councillors in behalf of the High Mighty Lords States General of the United Netherlands, His Highness of Orange and the Hon. Managers of the General Privileged West India Company, residing in New Netherland: Make Known that on this underwritten date we have given and granted as we are giving and granting by these presents (by virtue of a certain Act, dated July 1640, conceded by said Lords Managers), to Cornelius Melyn the entire Staten Island, situated on the Bay and North River of New Netherland, excepting so much land as appertains to a farm which by us Director and Councillors before mentioned had been granted and given—before the date of the before mentioned Act—to David Peterse De Vries of Hoorn, which land has also been occupied by him David Peterse; all under express condition that he, Cornelius Melyn, or those by virtue of the present entering upon his rights, shall acknowledge the said Hon. Heeren Managers as their Lords, under the Sovereignty of the High Mighty Lords the States General; and hereto obey their Director and Councillors as good inhabitants are bound to do; providing he, Melyn, or those entering upon his right, submit in whole and in part to all such charges and requisitions as—in accordance with the exemptions of New Netherland—have been already levied or shall yet be levied by the Managers; consequently constituting in quality and by virtue as expressed before, said Cornelis Melyn, in our stead, real and actual possessor of the aforesaid parcel of land; granting him by these presents perfect power, authority and special order to take possession of cultivate, inhabit, use, the said Staten Island—except the said farm—as he may do with other his patrimonial lands and effects, without we, the grantors, in the aforesaid quality are reserving or retaining any the least share, claim or authority in the same, desisting of the same in behalf of as above.

[Translated from the Dutch]

In manner and on conditions hereafter expressed the Very Noble Jongheer (Lord) Godert Van Reede, Lord of Nederhorst, etc., has agreed with Cornelis Melyn that the said Lord of Nederhorst shall receive and possess in ownership the just half of the colonies acquired by Cornelis Melyn from the West India Company on Staten Island or elsewhere to be selected as well in regard to jurisdiction as to ownership of the lands, woods, and all other rights, appertaining to the said colony. Which one half said Melyn by these presents cedes to the Lord of Nederhorst; the other half as well as in regard to jurisdiction, lands, woods and rights appertaining to the same remaining to the said Cornelis Melyn; provided that said colony with the consent and approbation of both parties, shall be divided in two equal parts, an exact map of which shall be made and sent over by the said Melyn, to be then drawn for by the said Lord of Nederhorst, and by the said Melyn. And in case the said Lord of Nederhorst should draw the part upon which said Melyn should have incurred any expenses, said Lord of Nederhorst in such case shall pay indemnification, upon the award of expert arbitrators. With the distinct understanding that each for his own share shall bear his own expenses and shall people the same, and further each shall regulate his own property in such a manner as they shall deem proper without having anything further in community with the other; with express condition that if the Lord Count of Solms in regard to his Colony should happen to acquire any more privileges from the West India Company or their High Mightinesses, that said Lord of Nederhorst shall also exert himself as much as possible that said Melyn, in such case, shall also receive similar condition and privileges for his portion, without however being obliged to positively acquire the same. Said Melyn promising to act as superintendent and to take care that the people to be sent there by the Lord of Nederhorst (who will do so as soon as his Honor shall find an opportunity) shall be held to their duty, and to report on the same from time to time. The said people to be sent there by the said Lord of Nederhorst are not to act in weighty matters unless with the advice of the said Cornelis Melyn. In ratification of which parties mutually pledge their respective persons and goods, submitting the same for this purpose to all Lords, Courts and jurisdictions. In testimony respective parties have subscribed to this present (which remains in the custody of me Jan De Graeff Notary Public at Amsterdam) in the presence of and with me Notary, at Amsterdam, this sixth of May, old style, of the year sixteen hundred forty one.

Grant of Burger Jorison, of the 28th April 1643.

[Translated from the Dutch]

In the year after the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ one thousand six hundred four and forty the 17th day of December, appeared before me Cornelis Van Tienhoven, Secretary of New Netherland, Burger Jorisen, Farrier (hoefsmid) and inhabitant here, who declared in the presence of the below subscribed witnesses to convey and transfer in a true free ownership to Mr. Cornelis Melyn, his house and lot situated on the island Manhatans, as he is by these presents conveying and transferring said lot and house by virtue of ground brief & conveyance granted by the Director and Councillors of New Netherland, dated April 28, 1643. On account whereof he Burger Jorisen Constitutes in his stead as real and actual owner of the said lot and house said Cornelis Melyn or those entering upon his right, granting him irrevocable power, authority and what has been expressed before, so that he, Melyn, may do with and dispose of the same as he might do with other his patrimonial estate, without he, the grantor, retaining in the same any ownership or claim (the bill of sale having been satisfied), but renouncing the same from now on for ever. In testimony hereof, the Minute of the present has been subscribed to at the record office by Burger Jorissen, Will. De Kay & Gysbert Opdyck, as witnesses invited for this purpose. Done at Fort Amsterdam in New Netherland, December 17, 1644, New Style. It was subscribed to with the mark of Burger Jorisen and signed in the name of Burger Jorisen.

On March 18, 1661 the here standing name has been put down by Burger Jorisse.

[Mandamus April 28, 1648]

The States General of the United Netherlands, To the first Marshall or Messenger having power to serve when requested, Greeting: Make Known, that we, having received the humble supplication presented to us by and in behalf of Jochem Pietersz Cuyter and Cornelis Melyn, containing that they, petitioners, with permission and leave of the Assembly of the XIX of the General West India Company, with wife and children and with private means, besides a large herd of cattle, in the year one thousand six hundred and thirty nine, transported themselves from these countries to New Netherland, so that they, petitioners, after enormous expenses, difficulties and inexpressible labor, got into condition, in the year sixteen hundred forty three, their lands, houses and other undertakings which in the aforesaid year on account of the war (waged by Director Kieft unjustly and contrary to all international law, with the savages or natives of New Netherland) they have been obliged to abandon and as a consequence lost all their property. On account hereof the petitioners, besides the other six Selected Men took counsel and in the name of the joint Commonality in New Netherland in the year sixteen hundred forty four by the Blue Cock, sent two letters: to the said Assembly of the XIX, as also to the Directors in Amsterdam, containing their grievances regarding this matter, the disasters grown out of these actual murders, massacres and many other cruelties (which is appalling to every christian conscience having information hereof) which Director Kieft at the time, has caused to be perpetrated by his forces among the simple and innocent savages, as may be learned more at large from the original letter to the XIX; so that the Eight selected men did not know that they had transgressed in this matter, but had hoped that the same would have been taken in good part by the Lords Directors. But petitioners find on the contrary that their writings were taken in the worst part by the Lords, who consequently returned said letter with the New Director Stuyvesant to New Netherland to Director Kieft, from which subsequently followed that said Kieft began to proceed very vigorously against the Eight Select Men (especially against both petitioners) and has caused them to be prosecuted by the Fiscal. In such a manner that Director Stuyvesant (in order to please said Kieft in the matter) has banished petitioners for a number of years out of the country because they were not willing to repeal the truth, and adhered to their previous writings. Petitioners thereupon turned to us, requesting, imploring and praying for God's Sake, that we should be pleased to maintain them in their just cause, that they might again be able to join their poor, desolute wives and children, and to be reinstated in their former condition on their devastated lands. And in case petitioners have transgressed through any improper documents (tending to the damage of New Netherland or the common weal, which they have never attempted) they submit to such punishment as we shall find to be proper. But on the contrary it will be shown that petitioners in their writings did not consider anything but that the common prosperity and the desire for peace in New Netherland might again be restored, and that the inhuman cruelties, tryanny and evil government (which in that country from time to time have been inflicted by the officers of the West India Company especially by Director Kieft upon the inhabitants of New Netherland) might be stopped. As a consequence of these barbaric proceedings the entire government of that country has been erupted the householders chased away, their lands laid waste, the farms and plantations to the number of fifty or sixty burnt and reduced to cinders. And, worst of all, the the name of the Netherland nation, on account of the cruel acts is most thoroughly detested by the Heathens of that country. And then when the poor inhabitants complained about these and other harsh proceedings to the High Sovereign Government, they were, by the Director, chased out of the country, in such a manner that in course of time the country was denuded of the Dutch inhabitants, and at present there are found there little more than a hundred males (excepting the private traders), and therefore it is to be feared that the English (who arrived some years after the Dutch, and within fifteen years increased to about fifty or sixty thousand souls in New England) and already now have had a taste of the fruitfulness and also of the convenient navigable rivers of our New Netherland, will in course of time attempt to become masters of the same. On account whereof petitioners again cordially pray that this aforesaid, and their humble petition may be considered by us, and they may be granted their reasonable and just request, which has even been promised by the Assembly of the XIX in their Freedoms of 1630 to all Patroons and Free Residents. Considering which we order and command you, commissioning you by these presents, that at the request of the said petitioners you summon in our behalf the aforesaid Director Stuyvesant and the members of the New Netherland government before mentioned, besides all others; if necessary to come and appear, or send attorneys, on an appropriate day, before us here at the Hague, to maintain and defend the aforesaid sentences and the tenor of the same or if they deem proper to renounce the same; to see and to hear the same pronounced null, void and of no value and in consequence modify and correct the same, as per law, if such be necessary; to reply to such questioning as petitioners shall be inclined to put on the proper day, in order, parties heard, petitioners may be granted by us such remedies of Justice, and also of grace, if necessary, as shall be found requisite, and be appropriate to the cause. Further forbidding and most rigorously ordering on our behalf if need be on certain heavy penalty, the aforesaid defendants and all others, that pending the case in appeal they do not act, attempt, nor innovate anything against nor in prejudice of the same, nor of the said appellants; but in case anything should have been done, attempted or innovated contrary to the same, that immediately and without delay they repair the same, putting it in its first and proper state. Leaving, in behalf of defendants, copy of the present and of your service, relating to us on the said day what you shall have done in this matter. Given at The Hague, on the twenty eighth of April, sixteen hundred and forty eight.

Ordering and commanding each and every one whom it may in any way concern, exactly to regulate themselves in conformity herewith, in every appearance as if the aforesaid amplification had been verbally inserted in the aforesaid mandamus. To the Hon. Lords Managers of the privileged West India Company at the Chamber of Amsterdam.

Makes Known with due reverence Cornelis Melyn Patroon of Staten Island: that he petitioner in the year 1640, on July 2, obtained from your Honors liberty to found in New Netherland, wherever he might think proper a colony and that for this purpose he selected the said Staten Island, which selection was approved by your Honors and entered in your Honors' Colonial registers, as can be further seen by Act and Conditions of the same.

The petitioner, in extending and erecting his colony has sustained several unexpected obstacles damages and great disasters: First, on August 13, 1640, when he was going thither with people, cattle, goods and all implements necessary for agriculture, he was taken by a Dunkirk frigate, on account whereof he was prevented said year till Anno 1641, when through your help and assistance he arrived with the ship "Den Eyckenboom" (The Oaktree) in New Netherland on the said Statten Island with 41 persons. He immediately began to build houses, to plough land, and to do everything conducive to establishing a good colony, begrudging neither money nor labor. But thereupon a second unexpected disaster took place owing to a war with the savages or aborigines, commenced in New Netherland. My houses and farms and everything were burnt my cattle besides some people were shot dead, so that I was obliged to flee for the sake of saving my life, and to sojourn with wife and children at the Menatans till the year 1647, when the new Director Petres Stuyvesant proceeded very severely against the (8) Eight Men, one of whom was myself; elected by the community, on account of two letters so written to your Honors in the name of the poor ruined community treating of the cause of the war, disasters and the consequences of the same, which letters had been read by your Honors and returned to him Stuyvesant. As a consequence hereof I, besides one Jochem Pietersen Cuyter were by said Stuyvesant banished from New Netherland for a number of years, according to the sentence pronounced regarding the same, and departed for Fatherland from New Netherland with the ship The Princess Amelia in company with Director Willem Kieft. However owing to mistakes and wrong calculations we entered the "Verkeerde Canaal" (Bristol Channel) where during the night, the ship went to pieces, many people were drowned, and after having floated hither and thither at sea for about eighteen hours, the Lord be praised, I at last reached land, where I found Jochem Pietersen Cuyter and some other people and subsequently, after much trouble, arrived in the fatherland, where I advised with Jochem Pietersen Cuyter about complaining to their High Mightinesses of the unjust sentence pronounced, the violence and trouble caused us by the Director in New Netherland, with request of Mandamus on account of appeal, which was granted us, Herewith, in the year 1648, we returned to New Netherland, in the hope, in the future to be permitted with wife and children, peacefully to live on our lands. But whereas said Director used every means to sustain his unjust sentence, and the Secretary Cornelis Van Thienhooven (who most believe to be the cause of all disasters and calamities fallen during his time upon New Netherland) was by him sent to Fatherland to appear in his stead before their High Mightinesses, I resolved also to go thither, besides some delegates of the Community, in order to be present in cases which might concern me, but mostly to look for means to restock my ruined Colony and again, if possible, to retore the same, as my power and capital, owing to the said causes, had been very much diminished. Consequently I received some money from good friends, some of whom I have yet to pay, and futher, for the said purpose I agreed on certain conditions with the Hon. Lord Hendrick Van der Capellen to resell etc., about one-third share of my Colony on the Staten Island, which upon contract he agrees at his expense to people with settlers, and to bring his share up to condition, which he has demonstrated. Consequently about 70 strong and with fresh necessities for agriculture I again set sail for New Netherland, with the ship named the New Netherland Fortune. But whereas we encountered very bad weather and unfavorable conditions, after much trouble, many dangers and out of provisions and water, we at last arrived at the Red Island, where we were obliged to provide ourselves with some victuals and water, and therefore to exchange some merchandise. We therewith arrived in New Netherland in front of the Staten Island where owing to contrary wind and tides we cast anchor. The people belonging there, joyfully went on land, thanking God for Having been freed from the water and the ship. Meanwhile about sunset, Fiscal Van Dyck arrives on board with the Sergeant and a few soldiers to guard the ship, so that no merchandise should be discharged from the same. Thereafter we arrived at the Menatans, expecting to be welcomed by the Director, as well as by the community and all lovers of New Netherland and of the Company, owing to the arrival of the ship and such a splendid multitude of country people consisting of farmers and farm laborers, the like of whom, it was averred, had never yet been seen (to arrive) in New Netherland. But on the contrary the Director began by manifesting his old hatred and partisanship asserting first that at the Staten Island something should have been discharged which looked like contraband; second that I should have sold goods at the Red Island; third that one Casper Verlet, who said to be part owner of the ship should have been deprived of his claimed share in the ship and the merchandise; fourth, that I had too much encouraged the skipper in his evil intent and further several allegations not worth while enumerating here but which can be seen from the documents regarding the same. Owing to these before enumerated causes he begins, through the fiscal, to proceed very rigorously against ship and goods, attaches everything, arrests my person guarding me well with soldiers; as a consequence my newly arrived country people began to grumble, the desire for work, because I could not be present there, they began to loose to my great damage and expense; the crew were arrested, and thus were forced to make such declarations as pleased the authorities; (which arrest) caused me great expense to the crew, and for the ships repairs, up to the time when it pleased him to confiscate ship and goods and to appropriate the same to his own use. Not stopping at this, but for the purpose of absolutely ruining me, also my real estate being at the Menatans, consisting of some houses and lots, was attached and sold to my great damage under appearance of "rugrant" of the shipper and owners; so that owing to these before related acts I have clearly perceived that for me there was no security at the Menatans owing to these many arrests, citations, summonses and molestations and I have resolved to quit the Menatans and, thus Wronged and plundered, to join with wife and children my people in my colony on Staten Island. And I left the Director at the Menatans with all his proceedings to continue as he pleased without defending my just cause, as it would not have done me any good anyway, and further intending to repair my above mentioned losses, and attend to the support of my wife and children, which has again been assiduously undertaken by myself and my people, and commenced to cultivate the land which had been laying so long fallow to clear, plow, sow, mow, thresh, make a harbor to build houses, racks, barns for the purpose of lodging the people, and the cattle we were using, as an ornament of New Netherland and an honor and credit to the Hon. Company and further as an incentive and spur to all other country people as well villagers as detached farmers, and even to those arriving from the Menatans itself, who were surprised at the large crop of grain which had this year been produced through our diligence; and there had been commenced sixteen handsome farms as well by myself as by my children as also by the people taken along by me for the Lord Van der Capelle and sent over by His Honor; which farms were covered with twenty seven buildings; houses, racks and barns, each well provided with cattle as well beautiful plow oxen, milch cows, as calves for increase, so that every thing began to be abundant on Staten Island, and through God's blessing I again began to recover my losses. But Director Stuyvesant again became active, as if it appeared that my prosperity began to trouble him. For when, in the year 1655, in August, he had received some soldiers from Fatherland by the ship the Waech (Balance) Captain Frederick De Cooninck, to sail with them on an expedition to the South River, he dispatched said Cooninck with the Fiscal Cornelis Van Tienhoven and some soldiers to the Staten Island for the purpose of fetching me; but being ignorant of the same, about two or three hours before, I had gone in my boat to the Menatans in order to attend to some business concerning my colony. The Director Stuyvesant met me with some soldiers, and he immediately exclaimed Take hold of Melyn, conduct him to the guard house and secure him well. There I was incarcerated till the return from Staten Island of the boat with the said Capt. Coninck and Fiscal Tienhoven. He thereupon convened his council and the said Captain, has me brought before him, asks me "where are the letters you have received from the Swedes?" which sounded to me as strange as if I had been asked for letters from the great Turck, and gave for answer not to know of any letters from the Swedes, nor that I was expecting any. To this said Stuyvesant replied "you will soon be taught to speak differently," and ordered the fiscal to have me conducted to prison and to secure me well. I was there conducted and thrown in a dark hole, and I was not to see nor to converse with any one. This lasted twenty five days without a further hearing until the 16th of September when the Savages set fire to all buildings around the Menatans, and killed and murdered a large number of our people which at the Menatans and the whole country [here three quarters of a line obliterated] interceding and running to and fro of my wife and children as well as others, permitted me under certain conditions to leave the hole. I then immediately departed for the Staten Island to see whether I could save my people, houses and goods from the savages; but in vain; for a few days later the savages arrived there in great numbers and commenced to attack our people, to set fire to the houses, stacks, barns mostly full of grain, so that the people were obliged to seek safety in my house which they (the savages) also succeeded in setting afire. And when the cinders began to fall down on us we were forced to leave it and obliged to break through the savages to enable us to retire to another small house standing close to the shore. Here we held out for some time longer, hoping meanwhile to receive some assistance from the Menatans. But all in vain. At last the savages called out to us that if we desired quarter they would grant the same to us, whereupon we resolved as we saw no other refuge [here nearly an entire line obliterated] because from among our number already 15 or 16 persons, among whom my son 22 years old, my son in law and two nephews had been shot dead, besides some wounded; and thus fifty one in number went into captivity among the savages, where we remained during thirty one days until I had raised a ransom of about 1,400 guilders for myself, wife, son and son in law, which was to be paid if we did not want to be burnt alive in a fire which for this purpose had been already prepared and was burning. Subsequently arriving at the Menatans, as miserable as we well could be, we hoped to enjoy some quiet after our sad imprisonment. But the day following there arrived at my lodgings Secretary Van Reuven with a sergeant in command of soldiers armed with firearms and sword, saying "Melyn the Director sends us hither and lets you know that you must try to find more ransom, for the savages are not yet satisfied," and forced me immediately to go in search of 60 or 70 guilders additional payment, if I did not want to be put in the former prison. It appeared to me somewhat suspicious that the savages were so bold, and at the Menatans, through the servants of the Company, dared to vex me yet further; (it occurred to me) that the same might have been trumped up in order to at once ruin me. I submit to your Honour's judgment after all that had befallen me and I being in such a sorrowful and miserable condition, my children and people murdered by the savages, the houses, racks, barns to the number of 25, burnt, the people, cattle and farms destroyed, my goods stolen, and in place thereof debts incurred for my ransom, and retaining the bitter hatred of the Director, I have resolved to quit the Menatans, in order not to perish absolutely with wife and children and for the time being to put myself under the protection of the English; and consequently departed with my family for New Haven, until I shall have found opportunity and means to pay for the trip hither, Meanwhile making your Honors acquainted with my distress as related heretofore, with humble request to sustain me in my just cause against the aforesaid Petrus Stuyvesant regarding the evil acts and great damage unjustly inflicted on me, and to assist me in regaining my own, in order with the same means and your Honors' assistance to refound my ruined colony for the third time, and to restore the same to its former condition.

[This Document is printed in O'Callaghan's History of New Netherland. . . Vol. 2, pages 575-6.]

To the Hon. Heeren Managers of the Privileged West India Company at the Chamber of Amsterdam, and to the Hon. Commissioners appointed to negotiate with Cornelis Melyen regarding his colony on the Staten Island, viz. Mr. Edwaerd Man, Mr. Abram Wilmerdonck, Mr. Hans Bontemantel, as Managers.

Hon. Gentlemen I trust that it is still fresh in your Honors' memory that, on June 13, 1659, at Amsterdam, I most amicably agreed, covenanted and contracted with your Honors, viz, in such a manner as can be seen from the contract entered into on the said date; whereafter, with the ship The Love by way of Curacoa, On March 5, 1660, I safely arrived with God's help in New Netherland. I showed the said agreement and contract, besides your Honors' good intentions to the Hon. Heer Stuyvesant, and verbally proposed to him that I hoped and trusted that the same would be followed up and carried out by his Honor. He answered in substance according to my best recollection, that he would regulate himself according to the orders of the Hon. Heeren Managers, his masters and principals. And a little time afterward I went to His Honor, and informed him that for account of the said Company and Chamber in New Netherland there shall be returned to me all such monies as have proceeded of certain my house and lots, standing and situate on the Menatans in New Amsterdam near the Fort, which, by Director Stuyvesant, by execution levied in behalf of Daniel Migielse, skipper of the ship the New Netherland Fortune have been sold, or as much of the monies as should yet be in the hands of the Company; answers that the Hon. Company never has had any monies produced by the sale. Here upon I requested His Honor to afford me some information about where they were or who had received them, or how to get at them. He refers me to Commissary Caerel Verbrugge in order to obtain from him information and light regarding the same, who, after I had several times petitioned, requested and accosted him, at last said and gave me for answer that he had much sought after the same and had not succeeded in finding it. With this I had to be satisfied until May 23, 1661, when the Director General had bidden me to attend his meeting, as can be seen from the attached copy of his resolution. Among other things we had several debates concerning this matter also some debates and talks concerning the sale of house and lots though it had not been expressed or mentioned in the Resolution, as it appears that their Honors don't bother as much about this matter as about other questions, contrary to their Honors favor and good opinion. Arriving now to the second dispute in the contract, broached by Director and Council: their Honors also grant me exemption from tolls, as well here as in New Netherland on the amount of about one thousand guilders capital, in merchandise, which I should import. Now the Hon. Lords in addition to their aforesaid exemption have permitted about fifteen hundred guilders' worth to follow me, in conformity with their verbal promise that a couple hundred guilders difference would not matter, which has been actually substantiated by your Honors. Will also show gratitude at occurring occasions. Now upon arriving here I request to enjoy the same favor as at Amsterdam, according to the tenor of the agreement. In opposition to this it is argued that it is their Honors' opinion "exemption at Amsterdam but not in New Netherland, Upon sending the goods again tolls must be paid." I answer if it had not been the opinion of the Hon. Heeren Managers they would simply have said "Here at Amsterdam," not "As well here as in New Netherland," from which it is plainly to be understood: "In New Netherland as well exempt as at Amsterdam," where the Hon. Heeren have granted the freedom, and still so much more as has been stated before. Thirdly His Honor and his Council dispute about freight and passenger charges for myself and accompanying people, in this manner in regard to this article: "And further that he and his family and accompanying people with hired or owned vessels, shall be conveyed thither by said Company, at the expense of the Hon. Company, in accordance with the present custom." This "present custom" is here by the Director and Council understood: that the expense and passage charges are to be paid upon arriving here. Answer, if this was the case it would have been unnecessary to have made any condition regarding it, or to enter the same in a contract, and would [my]self have sought means of conveyance or have agreed with the skipper. Fourth, it is disputed and illy explained that which the Hon. Heeren opine justly and in good faith, viz: that from now on as a free colonist and inhabitant for himself and his descendants he shall have and hold as a free allodial property the lands, houses and lots which in the said colony there he possesses, and has hitherto occupied, and which he shall yet there take up and, are not possessed by others, and shall enjoy the succession of the same or may dispose of the same by will codicil, donation or gift, contract or otherwise, as per the articles of Freedoms and Exemptions, was granted to the patroons and colonists. Surely it is plain and visible, from the abovesaid that it is not the Hon. Lords opinion and desire to take away from me the liberal grant, made and conveyed to me in their Assembly of July 3, 1640, and further on February 18 & 25, 1641, by which the before mentioned grant is renewed. And further the groundbrief—being the conveyance—also expresses the granting of the entire Staten Island as a consequence of the consent mentioned above, signed by the Heer General Wilm Kieft, dated June 19, 1642. And whereas the contract states that I shall surrender all letters and documents concerning the jurisdiction and what appertains thereto, which I have also immediately done, requesting again a new groundbrief of the lands of the Staten Island, in the manner as I possessed and occupied the same heretofore, as can be seen by said Act and Letters; this opinion of the Hon. Lords is thus explained by Director and Council, if he was to remain in possession of the said entire Island, why then had it been necessary to stipulate that he and his descendants should possess and retain as free allodial good the lands, houses and lots he possesses on the said Island and which up to the present he has occupied, and still shall be able to occupy. This forsooth is to be surely and clearly understood that the Hon. Lords let me keep that which they have granted and given me, as was said before. For it has been occupied nor expenses incurred for, by anybody else but myself and those who received my permission. On the other hand if the Hon. Lords were of opinion that I should not remain proprietor of the Island, and their Honors had retained it to themselves to grant away, why then did the Hon. Heeren have need to agree with heirs of the Hon. deceased Lord Vander Capelle, whom, by contract, I ceded one third portion of the entire Island, which still remains hypothecated (mortgaged) for my advanced moneys. As also in what manner I have yet pointed out and promised and agreed with many others about my lands, besides with the Hon. Heer Van der Cappellen. But neither this nor several other clear proofs and arguments I desire to produce for the Hon. Heeren but refer the Hon. Heeren to my petition delivered in to the meeting—where on April 10, by resolution, the above named gentlemen were appointed—from which can be seen the great expenses, exceedingly hard work, great damage and difficulties, come to me on account of the said entire Island. These gentlemen after having maturely considered and discussed this entire matter, in accordance with your Honors' wise and intelligent understanding shall conclude, in every respect, that I deserve to be maintained in my just causes, which I also hope and firmly trust shall thus be done by your Honors, and that Director General Stuyvesant shall then be ordered by the high authority of the Hon. Heeren Managers of the Chamber of Amsterdam, to let me peaceably enjoy the perfect effect of the favor of the Hon. Lords' good intentions, so that I, besides those who have yet remained and besides myself have saved their lives from the savages, resolve again to take up our former lands and renew our dwellings; and orders might be issued by your Honors that the means towards this end should not be prevented and that I might be shown where I can find the moneys of my sold houses and lots, which means would now also be serviceable to me on the Staten Island, and give courage to my dispersed people, who would gladly return to their lands, in order to put them in the same good condition as before.

A copy of a Letter of Cornelius Melyen to ye Committe & Lords of ye West India Company at Amsterdam complaining of ye evil usage & bad exposition of Governr Steuyvesant relating to ye Agreeemt made about ye Title of Governm. upon ye Colony of Stat Isld.

[Translated from the Dutch]

Cornelius Melyen at ye desire of the Lords of the West India company at their chamber in Amsterdam, declares what he knows concerning ye purchase of Staten Island from the Indians in New-Netherland, & what they receiv'd for ye payment of it, Sayith that Anno 1640. (at which time ye aforesd. Lords had granted him License to plant & manure his sd. Colony of Staten Island) he went to ye late Governr Walter Vantwilder (then being at Amsterdam) of whom he amongst other things Enquired into ye circumstances of ye purchase of Staten Island of ye Indians, who answered him, that ye Island was bought & paid for by ye Governr Minnewit, who immediately preceded him; He desired him (if he could) to do him ye kindness of furnishing him with ye relation thereof in writing, wch (at his request) he did, & gave him some days after a written Copy taken out of ye purchac'd deed (or bill of Sale) which shew'd what pay ye Indians receiv'd for sd, Island, vizt. Some Duffies Kittles, Axes, Hoes, Wampum, Drilling Awls, Jews Harps, and diverse other small wares, which were all particularizd, wch Bill of Sale was signed by diverse Indians & remaind in his custody intill ye Dunkirkers took him, his Ship, people, Cattle & all his writings— The Year following arriving in New Netherland & being come on Staten Island I (ye sd. Cornelius Melyen) caused ye Indians to be askt whether they were not well recompenced by Minnewit for sd. Island, They gave me for Answer, yt they had sold it to sd. Minnewit & were paid for it, but that it was their custome, when a New Governr came to such a place, that there should be a Gratuity given them; thereby to continue the friendship between ye Indians & o^r nation, which I did to ye great content & Satisfaction of them all—After this when I took out my Patent from Gover^r Willm Kieft pursuant to ye grant of ye aforesd. Lords, I desired that ye Indians might once again be ask'd if they had yet any pretence to any Right upon Staten Island, or could pretend to make any, which was done by ye Secretary Cornelius Van Tienhooven, who could speak in ye Indian Dialect very well, whereupon they answered that they were well satisfied & well agreed with me, & they (ye sd. Indians), after that made no pretence till ye year 1649—at which time I was in ye mind to go with my wife, children & people to live upon sd. Island again. The Indians began then of to speak of buying ye Island again; I then demonstrated to them ye aforesd. Sale & agreement, which they acknowledged they knew very well, & that they did not speak of that, but they supposed that ye Island by reason of ye war, by killing, burning & driving us off, was become theirs again, and therefore thought that there must be a newbargain made, which I wholly refused them & would neither give, nor promise them any thing saying unto them, that which is sold, must remain sold & that ye Dutch will not pay twice for any thing, which they have oncebought, but if they will once more have a small gift gratis to maintain good friendship as had been done before I would give it them, whereunto (after mature deliberation among themselves) they resolved; whereupon I gave them amongst them all two Coats of Duffles containing Six Ells four fathom of wampum, 5, or 6, little kittles, some awls & needles wherewith they were all well satisfied & cryed unanimously (Keene, Keene, Keene orit nietap) i.e. Thank you, Thank you, Thank you Good friend, and they were very well satisfied until Lubbert Vant Dincklagen began to speak with ye Indians of buying Staten Island again of them, who did it on purpose to find occasion to write to ye Lord Capell to try whether under that Covert he might bring about ye getting of some goods of ye sd. Lord into his hands to dispose thereof for himself & to give little thereof to ye Indians for there is indeed nothing at all due to them for by such means ye Indians would be induced often to make outrages, that they might ev'ry now & then be paid again & not only to play such Prancks upon Staten Island, but throout all New Netherland, where the Lords of ye West India Company's Governmt. extendeth. I trust therefore that ye honour'd Lords will not approve (or allow) of such bargains, in order to ye preventing more mischiefs.

This is as much as I can write of Testifie of this matter

Extract from the Register of the Resolutions of the Hon.
Heer Director General and Councillors of New Netherland, adopted in their Assembly on Monday May 23, 1661.

Invited to be present at the meeting, and standing inside, Cornelis Melyn; after taking up the Contract entered into by the Hon. Heeren Managers and the said Melyn in date of June 13, 1659, in regard to Staten Island, said Melyn was asked whether he had in his possession any papers and documents regarding said Island, and whether he was prepared in conformity with said contract, to deliver the same to the Director General and Councillors, and further to convey said Island in behalf of the privileged West India Company at the Chamber of Amsterdam, excepting the lands, houses and lots he is occupying or may be able to occupy as per the said contract.

Whereto it was answered in substance by the said Cornelis Melyn that he was ready to hand to the Director General & Council the papers and documents concerning the same, in his possession, which he has also immediately done, delivering the papers specified below, declaring to have no others concerning the said island; in regard to the transfer and conveyance of the said island in behalf of the Hon. Priv. West India Company (excepting the lands, houses and lots he is occupying there etc.) said this had never been his opinion, but only that he should grant, convey, cede and transfer all the power, authority, rights, jurisdiction, preeminence, prerogatives, etc. belonging to him in his quality as patroon of the said island; requested on the contrary since he had now surrendered the deed granted to him for said island by the deceased Heer Kieft, that he should again be granted a new deed for the ownership of the said island.

It was answered if it had been the intention that he should remain possessed of the said entire island why it should have been necessary to stipulate that for himself and his heirs he shall hold and retain as a free allodial possession the lands, houses and lots owned and up to now occupied by him, and which he may yet be able to acquire etc.; and further if the entire island belongs to him, what, then, the Heeren Managers have bought of the heirs of the Lord Van Capelle, who have now also conveyed their right to the Hon. Company?

In regard to which said Cornelius Melyn acknowledged having ceded and vacated one third of the said island to the Lord Capelle, but that he even yet had large claims against the same; in regard to the two remaining thirds, it had not been his opinion—as expressed before—to renounce his ownership; but that it would be well to enquire how the Hon. Heeren Managers understand the same.

Said Melyn was also informed that he had been charged for his own passage and for that of the servants taken with him, just like others, carried over at the expense of the Company, because it is stipulated in the said Contract that he shall be conveyed with his family at the expense of the Company, as is at present customary: which means that the advanced passage money be here refunded. Said Melyn maintains, that it is his opinion and was also the opinion of the Hon. Heeren Managers that he and his people were to be carried over absolutely free of charge, without repaying the advanced moneys; also because he was granted freedom of tolls on a thousand guilders principal, and not having taken with him so large a principal (capital) from Holland he would be permitted to deduct the balance here in paying duties or tolls.

After divers debates for and against it was resolved to send a copy of the present to the Hon. Heeren Managers and not to proceed with this business, until we shall have received further explanation regarding said contract of said Heeren Managers.

Acted on the date written above.

The papers surrendered by Mr. Cornelis Melyn concerning Staten Island are as follows:

A petition of Cornelis Melyn to the Hon. Heeren Managers, and disposition on the same, by which he is permitted to found a colony on Staten Island and he is acknowledged as Patroon, dated July 3, 1640.

A further petition of said Melyn to the Heeren Managers dated Feb. 18, 1641, presented after he had been taken by the Duynkerckers, requesting leave to depart with wife, children, servants and some cattle in Company's ships for New Netherland.

Two extracts of the resolution of the Hon. Heeren Managers dated 18th and 25th February, 1641, by which the afore said consent is renewed.

A groundbrief being the conveyance of Staten Island to Cornelis Melyn granted in consequence of the consent mentioned above, signed by the Heer General Willem Keift, dated June 19, 1642.

Agrees with the aforesaid Register,

C. V. Ruyven, Secretary.

Concerning the contention of Cornelis Melyn, that he surely did sell and deliver to the Company the title and the right of patroonship of the Staten Island, but not the lands themselves, we can not observe that the same can be deduced from the contract entered into with him concerning the same, but assured by the opposite, as there is entered, as your Honors have justly remarked and argued against him, that from now on, as free colonist and inhabitant, he shall have and hold for himself and his descendants as a free, allodial possession the lands, houses and lots he has in said colony and has occupied hitherto and which he shall yet be able to occupy. Ergo not the remaining lands which are laying fallow and uncultivated, so that the same neither can or must be permitted to be questioned.

C. V. Ruyven.

Endorsed: A Copy of a Record of o^r Interest upon Staten Island ordered by Govr Richard Nickolls, being ye first English Gover^r

To the Hon. Very Respectable Lord Anthony Colve, Governor General and the Lords High Councillors of New Netherland.

Makes known with respectful humility Jacob Melyen, that his deceased father has been proprietor of the Staten Island and has inhabited and possessed the same for many years, until he was surprised by a general war with the savages, many of his children and farmers murdered, their houses and goods burned and destroyed, on account of which great damage and ruin, and also owing to the temporary danger of the savages, he was forced to suffer the said island during some time to remain uninhabited. Some little time afterward he went to Amsterdam and there entered with the Hon. Heeren of the West India Company into a contract, concerning the Patroonship and jurisdiction of the said Island, provided he retained to himself, his heirs and successors all his lands, according to the letter of the said contract, of which right your Honors' petitioner's deceased father and his heirs have been deprived, partly owing to lack of means, sickness and death of your Honors' petitioner's deceased father, partly owing to the scattered residences, smallness of means and immaturity of years and understanding of his heirs, and also partly owing to various changes of government. However your Honors' petitioner having made known his right to the aforesaid, to the first English Governor Colonel Nicholls, the latter, before his departure, consented—and had registered by his secretary in the minute book—that a considerable tract of land should be surveyed for the heirs of said Melyen. The last acting governor, Loules (Lovelace) also several times promised Your Honors' petitioner to permit him to retain and enjoy the same. And about 8 or 10 days before his departure for Hartford he promised with many words that if God favored him he would have measured for and confirmed to Your Honors' petitioner and friends a parcel of land, situated between two branches of the Millriver, as also the point to the West of the mill, stretching toward the Schoetters Island, which point of land he, Governor Lovles, said he had intended to grant to his brother Thomas Lovles, but desiring to make a reality our long deferred hope, he would accommodate him [his brother] elsewhere. And whereas I now understand of Thomas Lovles, that he petitions You, Hon. Very Respectable, to be granted land there, and thus absolutely to deprive my aged mother and her children of all hope ever to receive anything any more of our father's inheritance, the island having been almost entirely apportioned to various individuals.

In consideration of the great expenses and miseries suffered and experienced on the island, therefore I find it my duty, in behalf of myself, wife and children, as well as my brothers and sisters and their children. to pray You Hon. Very Resp., very seriously and humbly that you be pleased to deny him Thomas Lovles his desire to obtain any land there, but that you Hon. Very Resp. be pleased to confirm the petitioner and friends in their right, that being delivered through your Hon. Very Resp.'s authority from the English nation, they may again live together in our calling, under our natural Authorities. In expectation of Your Hon. Very Resp's favorable answer, remain Your Hon. Very Resp's subject and servant,

Jacob Melyen

of the deceased Cornelis Melyn, assisted by the guardians of the absent heirs of the said estate, and besides the same delivering—in accordance with the order of 18 April last—the documents in proof of their right to Staten Island; re-offering at the same time to renounce any further claims they may have had on the said land; which petition having been taken into consideration the Lord Governor & Councillors (after having examined the produced documents) render the following decision:

The humble Petition of Jacob Melyen, most humbly sheweth

That yor Petitioners Father Cornelius Melyen by vertue of a Grant from the West India Company of Holland bearing date the Third of July 1640; was Governr & Proprietr of Staten Island in the Province of New York & was confirmed in the Governmt and Propriety thereof by Governr Kieft by a Patent bearing date the 19th of June 1642 and was in the quiet Possession & Enjoyment of the Governmt and Soyle of the sd Island as his rightfull inheritance, until he with his people [were] driven from thence by the Indians in the year 1643; and he was after that resettled thereon with diverse families, his servants, until another quarril was made at New-Amsterdam (now New York) with the Indians, Anno 1655 & were then cutt off upon Staten Island, having about twenty psons slain, who were of sd Melyen's Children, Nephews, Servants & Tenants. The Town consisting of about forty houses, which were burnt, & the Goods made plunder off, & yo^r petitioners sd father & mother & two sons with all those that survived were taken into a barbarous Captivity by the heathen; Yor Excelley's Petittir was one of the Sons who was much wounded, but recovered not without great difficulty. That his sd Father Cornelius Melyen upon some considerations did afterwards, vzt June 13, 1659, Resign his Right of Governmt back to the sd. West India Company of Holland upon sundry conditions, which were not all by then observed; But he never alienated or sold his Right to the Lands of the sd. Island or any part of his Estate there; but expressly reserved the same to himself And His heirs &c for ever as may appear by the sd agreement between the sd. West India Company & his sd Father, bearing date the 13th Day of June 1659, and that upon the Delivery of the Governt of New York to the English, One of the Articles of Agreement between the English & Dutch Commissioners expressly confirms unto all the Dutch Inhabitants, that continued there their freedome as Denizens and the Enjoyment of their Estates as before; Yet he the sd Jacob Melyen hath been ever since by fraud & Injustice denyed and hindred from the Enjoyment of his sd. Father's Inheritance he being the Rightfull heir, & this notwithstanding he hath made applicaⁿ to ev^{'ry} Governr that hath been sent thither by the Kings of England, by which means he hath suffered much Damage; All which will plainly appear to be true by the Records of New York, Copies of which have hitherto been denyed the Supplicant.

Yor Petittior therefore being well assured of yor Excelleys great regard to Impartial Justice most humbly Prays that Yor Excelley will take his case into Yor serious Consideraⁿ and permit him to take out of the Records copies of such Instruments & Papers as are necessary to prove ye Truth of what he hath before sett forth in order to Yor Lordship's more full Satisfacⁿ That Yor Petittir hath a Right to the Soyle of the sd Island & that he may be better enabled to possess himself of the same.

And Yor Petitir as in Duty bound will ever pray etc.
